Collection of Personal Information

To facilitate our collection of information to inform our decision regarding your employment suitability we require your confirmation that;

- All information, whether oral or in writing provided by you to Hōkai Nuku concerning your qualifications and experience in applying for the position is true and correct and you acknowledge that this information will assist Hōkai Nuku in its recruitment and selection decisions.
- That any false, incomplete or misleading information provided by you to Hōkai Nuku, may jeopardise your employment sought.
- In order to progress certain stages of the selection process you give Hōkai Nuku your permission to collect and store your personal information from the following sources:
 - The New Zealand Police and any police force outside of New Zealand;
 - Your previous employers and education providers;
 - Your nominated referees

Any references that are obtained from your referees will be used by Hōkai Nuku solely to evaluate your suitability for employment and you may not be entitled to have access to any references obtained if your referee has provided that reference in confidence.

CONSENT & DECLARATION

I declare that to the best of my knowledge the information provided in this expression of interest form and any support documents is accurate and I have provided all information relevant to the position and have not withheld any significant information.

I understand that if any false information is given or any material facts suppressed, my expression of interest form may not be accepted, or if I am employed, I may be involved in further discussions that may result in my employment being terminated.

I also acknowledge that if I am offered employment, the terms of any offer of employment will be recorded in a written employment agreement and this will comprise the entire understanding between us.
